STAT 1. [ ] called regarding Senator Fulbright's press conference on Friday, 30 January 1959. For purposes of the RFE use of this information, they were trying to get an authenticated report of what was said. He wondered if such a report might be forthcoming from the Senator's office or whether there was a transcript. Upon checking with the Senator's office, it was learned that there was no prepared report or transcript available. It was entirely off-the-cuff and no one seemed to have a complete record. [ ] was so advised.

STAT 2. The resumption of the briefing by the Director before the House Foreign Affairs Committee was confirmed for 2:30 on Tuesday, 3 February 1959 with Mr. Boyd Crawford's office (Mrs. Louise O'Brien.)

STAT 4. Met with Bob Smart to discuss the various measures for a Joint Committee pending in the House Rules Committee. See Memorandum for the Record.
